

THE WEATHER

Saturday, unsettled with occasional rain. Sunday, warmer. Sunday, continued unsettled, with occasional rain.

ESTABLISHED 1869

PARIS, TEXAS, SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1926

Member of Associated Press

NUMBER 151

THE PARIS MORNING NEWS

Some Cities Dry Some Wet New Years

Cattlemen Declare Outlook For Industry In 1926 Is Good

FIVE YEAR SLUMP SEEMS NEAR END

Leaders Say Greatest Needs Are Marketing, Financing and Tariff

Alpine, Jan. 1. (AP)—An optimistic outlook for the Texas cattle industry, which has been under a five year depression, is sketched by Herbert L. Kokernot, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association, in a brief resume of present and possible future conditions.

Mr. Kokernot is the largest ranch owner in the Big Bend, Davis mountain and Trans-Pecos district of Texas and has spent his life in the cattle business.

"The outlook for the cattle industry in 1926 on the whole is good," he said. "Range conditions generally are above normal. There has been so much forced liquidation for the last five years that it seems our surplus has disappeared, that our production now is not above our own consumption. With fair treatment, it appears it should be only a short time before the industry works back to a par with other industries."

"From the best information I can get, the cattleman's dollar is worth at present 80 cents in purchasing power."

He said there were three things necessary to restore the business to normal. These are: A better marketing system; a financing plan that will fit the requirements of the business, one that would be self liquidating within a period of three to five years; and protection "sufficient to prevent our country from being thrown into competition with those countries where land values and labor costs are far below ours."

"These things are far from being accomplished," he continued. "In fact we hardly have begun on them, for it is going to be a long, hard fight."

Musician Became A Scrub Woman But Deceived Parents

Galesburg, Ill., Jan. 1. (AP)—Colts at Knox Conservatory of Music have learned why Miss Lena Fahlstadt, 72-year-old scrub woman, was such an accomplished musician. They were informed Wednesday of her tragic career.

Miss Fahlstadt was buried Thursday by friends who attended her funeral. She had been in the hospital for several weeks when she became ill.

For years Miss Fahlstadt had been the cause of much wonderment among college co-eds and others who marveled at the melodies the scrub woman played in the college conservatory when permitted. Wrapped in an old shawl she was often found in front row seats at concerts given by famous artists, but her real interest remained unknown.

Years ago she left her native home in Horn, Ostertotland, Sweden, and came here seeking fame as a musician.

She opened a school of music, but failed of success because she could not master the English language.

Her father, H. N. Fahlstadt, a composer and musician, and her mother believed her a success until their deaths, even though the "shawl woman" engaged herself in the girls' dormitory here as a scrub woman, too proud to seek aid.

AUTO DEATHS INCREASE FOUR PER CENT IN EAST

New York, Jan. 1. (AP)—Automobile fatalities in the United States in 1925 were approximately four per cent greater than in 1924, it was indicated by figures obtained today for 29 representative cities and towns in New York, New Jersey and New England States, and for Connecticut as a whole.

The fatalities in the territory for which figures were obtained totaled 1894 for 1925, while the total for the same territory in 1924 was 1823.

Sixteen of the cities and towns included in the tabulation showed increased fatalities, while Connecticut state records showed a decrease in 1925 as compared with 1924. Nineteen up-state cities in New York showed decreases while three reported increases.

Of the seven New Jersey cities included in the tabulation, four showed increases while three reported decreases.

DUMB BELLS

CONFOUND YOU BOY—YOU CAN'T HOLD YOUR BREATH!
GARRY SIR!—CAN'T HOLD NOTHING ELSE SIR!

BY RUFUS L. LINDEN CO. 1926

STATE BRIEFS

By Associated Press

San Antonio.—The number of farms in Bexar county increased 456 during the five year period ending December 31, according to figures released in Washington by the bureau of the census department of commerce. There were 3,025 farms in 1920 and 3,481 in 1925.

Brownsville.—A survey by the Brownsville Herald shows that the population of Brownsville today is 20,946, compared with that of 11,171 at the time of the 1920 census.

San Antonio.—Construction of a house to cost not less than $50,000 will be started by the San Antonio lodge, Fraternal Order of Eagles, before June 1. W. T. Scouter, secretary, announced today.

San Antonio.—Seven National Guard air service officers were awarded wings as junior airplane pilots and released from further duty at Brooks field at the completion of a four months course in the primary flying school. They were Lieutenants P. Vernier, W. W. Wadsworth, E. B. McConnell, D. R. McCauley, L. P. Dice, H. G. Sweet and T. H. Strickler.

Austin.—Only one person was arrested last night at New Year's celebrations in a liquor charge and only a small quantity of liquor was confiscated, local prohibition officers reported today. Although several dances were held and the usual salutes were fired at the passing of the old and the coming of the new year, the capital spent a rather quiet night.

Lubbock, Jan. 1. (AP)—A damage suit for $25,000, growing out of the death of Claude Thompson, automobile mechanic who was killed last July by an electric current from the city power plant, was filed in district court here against the city of Lubbock Thursday by Thompson's wife.

Galveston.—One of the most orderly New Year's eve celebrations in years marked the advent of 1926 in Galveston last night. Police records show only two arrests for disturbing the peace and none for drunkenness.

Waco.—The number of arrests made by Waco city police for all causes dropped from 3,982 in 1924 to 5,149 in 1925.

Waco.—A New Year's real estate deal in the heart of the business section here was announced today by which Ed Sparks of Jacksonville, Fla., formerly of Waco, became the owner of ground 12 1/2 by 165 feet near Eighth and Austin streets.

Dallas.—Three persons were injured here New Year's eve by exploding fireworks. Word Weeks of Dallas, Bill Trice, a student of Baylor University, Waco, and Mrs. William Evans of Dallas were all slightly injured when the explosives struck them in the face.

MOST OF TEXAS HAS MORE OR LESS RAIN

Dallas, Jan. 1. (AP)—Rainfall ranging from drizzle to slow downpours prevailed over a large portion of Texas New Year's day and tonight, bringing needed moisture for small grain and ranges. Central Texas received the heaviest precipitation, reports tonight from Austin, Georgetown, and other points indicated. At Georgetown rain fell all day steadily with no sign of abatement during the night. Houston and Galveston on the coast and Wichita Falls in the north also reported steady downpours tonight.

The San Antonio section reported general rainfall. It was so heavy at Eagle Lake and East Bernard that Southern Pacific passenger trains were stopped at intervals to accommodate stranded motorists. The precipitation was heavy all the way to Houston.

MIDNIGHT HOUR MARKED BY NUMBER OF ARRESTS

San Antonio, Jan. 1. (AP)—Sixty persons were arrested during the last hours of the old year and the first of the new, 45 of them on charges of intoxication.

Federal prohibition authorities and the police declared the celebration was quiet and sane on the whole. The unrestrained reveling of other years was absent. There was liquor to be had, the prohibition agents admitted, but the "mop" squad, augmented by the police, sheriffs' deputies and representatives of the district attorney's office made the drinking of it a diversion of the home.

Fireworks and firearms were used and a few arrests were made for display of weapons. There were no sensational liquor raids, but ten persons were taken at various dance places.

DRUNKEN MAN KILLS HIS NEW YEAR CALLER

Amarillo, Jan. 1. (AP)—Francisco Quirez, 65, Mexican, was shot to death early today by Abel Navarro, 25, when the old man paid the younger man a New Year's visit. Navarro, who was intoxicated, when arrested, said he slew Quirez because the aged man cursed him. A charge of first degree murder was filed against Navarro.

Storms in East Paralyze Shipping

Shipping is in difficulties along the North Atlantic coast as a cold wave sweeps the East. Photo shows a steam trawler fighting its way into Boston harbor with the mercury below zero.

Coolidges Spend the Day Receiving Visitors from Diplomats to All Classes

Washington, Jan. 1. (AP)—Although government business was at a standstill today, New Year's was anything but a holiday for President and Mrs. Coolidge as they went through the grueling task of receiving thousands of visitors at the White House. Continuing the annual custom, they gave most of the day to shaking hands with callers ranging from diplomats to all classes of citizens.

The morning hours were taken up in receiving cabinet members, the diplomatic corps, justices of the supreme and other courts, members of congress, army and navy officers, a wide range of government officers and patriotic organizations.

Arrangements were made for a brief luncheon rest, then the doors of the White House were thrown open to the general public. The day was clear and much warmer than it has been and White House officials predicted that the number received today might pass last year's mark of nearly 5,000.

Eleven hundred men and women filed past President and Mrs. Coolidge before noon while they were being received a long line formed along Pennsylvania avenue.

INTERDENOMINATIONALS DENOUNCE MILITARISM

Chicago, Jan. 1. (AP)—Disapproval of war and all things military was expressed in recommendations before the interdenominational students' conference in Evanston today.

The recommendations asked for resolutions favoring: Discontinuance of the "defense" day test. Elimination of compulsory military training in the schools and colleges. Elimination of the war emphasis in school text books.

Entrance of the United States into the World court and into the League of Nations.

Removal of discriminatory legislation from the immigration policy.

Promotion of universal disarmament.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT KEEPS FORT WORTH SOBER

Fort Worth, Jan. 1. (AP)—Preceded by a law enforcement flurry in which rumors of out of state dry raiders came thick and fast, Fort Worth's welcome to the new year was the quietest since the advent of prohibition. There were no arrests and no confiscations of liquor.

Woman Hurt in Collision
San Antonio, Jan. 1. (AP)—Mrs. A. B. Mallicoate of Ft. Worth was injured probably fatally today when a car in which she was going to the funeral of a relative collided with a Southern Pacific train at a grade crossing.

Use of Energies, Talents And Other Resources Is Problem of Young Folks

Memphis, Jan. 1. (AP)—The church that learns how to make use of energies, talents and other resources of the young people of today is the church that will tomorrow accomplish most toward the completion of the unfinished task of her Lord and Master, declared Dr. Norman E. Richardson of Northwestern university before the Methodist young people's convention in session here today.

"An outstanding characteristic of our modern civilization," Dr. Richardson said, "is the universal use of mechanical inventions to save time, energy and occupational talents. The result is that large areas of leisure are being created. Economists are assuring us that if anybody should work enthusiastically with the most approved labor saving devices, and to the best of vocational advantages, the world's work could be done on the basis of a four hour day."

"Our problem is to find what to do with the remaining 20 hours. There is enough leisure being

STATE REVENUE IS ON INCREASE

Six Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars More in Receipts This Year Than Last

Austin, Jan. 1. (AP)—Receipts of the state government for the first four months of the present fiscal year are approximately $10,990,000 which is an increase of about $650,000 over last year's receipts for the same period of time, announced comptroller S. H. Terrell and disclosed by records in the comptroller's department. The present fiscal year commenced September 1, 1925.

The appropriations for all departments and institutions for the present fiscal year is $17,531,745, and when the present administration took office about one year ago there existed a deficiency of $2,698,541 in general revenue fund making a total of $20,500,286 to be raised this year, according to the comptroller. Of this total, about $10,000,286 will have to be raised from the collection of various other taxes.

"I feel sure that if the departments are empowered with the collection of the state's money," said Comptroller Terrell, "shown as much activity in the present fiscal year as they did in the fiscal year just closed, the treasury will at all times be in a substantial condition."

There was paid into the state treasury $62,164,043 during the past fiscal year and the comptroller's department issued warrants to the amount of $65,701,901. With the new year heavy tax collections will be made and especially during the months of February and March.

Women's Legislative Committee Makes Influence Felt in Capitol

Mrs. MAUD WOOD PARK
Mrs. JOHN D. SHERMAN
Miss MARJORIE PARKHURST

Non-partisan political movement in which women work co-operatively for social and industrial reforms, is making itself felt in Washington. Focusing point of the movement is the women's joint congressional committee, now five years old. Mrs. John D. Sherman, Estes Park, Col., is chairman, and Miss Marjorie Parkhurst, secretary. Mrs. Maud Wood Park, former president National League of Women Voters, brought the committee into being.

On Trail of Clues to Cancer Remedy

Dr. Francis C. Wood, director of Crockier Institute of Cancer Research, New York, is on his way to follow up several clues which may result in discovery of an effective treatment for the disease.

UNCOVER WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Extensive Sale of Beautiful Latvian Girls to South American Countries

London, Jan. 1. (AP)—Dispatches from various Baltic States declare that a huge traffic is proceeding for the sale of girls from Russia to Argentina and Brazil.

It is said that a beautiful girl fetches as much as $15,000 cash down.

Latvian immigration officers recently noticed that an extraordinarily large number of handsome girls had been arriving from Russia on their way to South America, and that they were accompanied by nondescript husbands.

It was also observed that these "husbands" were appearing every few months with a new beautiful wife. Their visits became so frequent that investigations followed.

The Latvian police now believe that they have discovered a colossal white slave organization whose headquarters are in Moscow.

These pretty girls are mainly Russians, but it seems there are also some Poles and Rutherians.

When questioned some of the girls told the officials that they were overjoyed at the possibility of leaving Russia and when it was hinted that they might become white slaves they retorted, "Better a white slave in South America than the hungry plying of the communists in Russia."

According to details obtained by the Latvian police, white slaves sell the girls at prices ranging from $5,000 to $15,000 in South America.

Hundreds of girls are passing through the port of Riga alone every month, and it is believed that thousands have already been transported by slavers.

Under the communist regime in Russia the slavers have little difficulty in "marrying" several wives each year and then accompanying them abroad.

And while the Latvian police are practically certain that hundreds of girls are passing through their country destined for a life of shame because of lack of definite proof they are unable to take action. Investigations, however, are proceeding and it is hoped an end will be put to this shameful traffic.

Matrimony Is Most Difficult Science and Finest of Arts

Rome, Jan. 1. (AP)—Matrimony is the most difficult of all sciences and the finest of all arts in the opinion of Celestino Fabietti for 23 years custodian of the antechamber of the marriage clerk of Rome's city hall.

Men, asserts Fabietti, are much more afraid of marriage than women. Sometimes, he says, it has taken all of his tact and skillful diplomacy to prevent reluctant bachelors from bolting before their turn came to face the marriage clerk.

"To know how to be a husband, or a wife is a profession in itself," he says. "The best way to read a person's character is to listen to him pronounce the fatal 'yes'."

Submit Army Coat Models
Washington, Jan. 1. (AP)—Three score or more models from which the new army roll collar uniform will be selected are expected to be submitted by military tailors to the quartermaster general within the next two weeks.

FEDERAL AGENTS SNOOPED HOTELS

Dry Cops Got Low Down on Hip Flask Toters But Filed No Complaints

Dallas, Jan. 1. (AP)—More than 100 New Year revelers were ousted from the principal hotels of Dallas Thursday night and Friday morning at the instance of Federal prohibition agents who found them drinking in private rooms and raising disturbances.

At least half of them were women, some of them prominent. While merry-makers welcoming the new year in the main dining rooms in hotel ball rooms, Federal sleuths were mingling with the dancers and prowling about the corridors, spotting hip flask toters and private room revelers. Large details of uniformed police and officers in plainclothes also stood guard to see that no one enjoyed himself more than the eighteenth amendment allows.

When drinking was discovered, the hotel managers were notified and instructed to send the imbibers from the hotels.

A quantity of liquor was seized by the agents and taken to the Federal building where it will be kept for evidence in the event further action is taken against the persons in whose possession it was found.

The Federal agents took the names of some of the persons in the rooms and from the hotel registers. In some instances the registers showed the name of one guest, the other occupants of the rooms not being registered.

The Federal agents gathered considerable information and data which will be turned over to Major H. H. White at Fort Worth. None of the persons found in the rooms was placed under arrest and no complaints had been filed in connection with the cases Friday morning.

DYNAMITE COAL COMPANY OFFICE IN STRIKE AREA

Russellville, Ark., Jan. 1. (AP)—The store and office building of the Bernice Anthracite Coal company, whose mine where a strike has been in progress for several months, was dynamited early today. The damage was estimated at about $2000. No one was injured.

Deputy United States marshals on duty at the mine which is being operated with non-union labor, were near the scene, but reported that they did not see anyone in the vicinity. The explosives apparently had been placed some time during the evening and timed to explode during the new year celebration at midnight.

The explosion was felt in Russellville, three miles from the mine, window panes rattling, but it was thought at the time that it was part of the celebration.

Deputy United States Marshal Seaton of Hope is investigating.

ORGANIST HURLED TO DEATH BY HUGE BELL

Providence, R. I., Jan. 1. (AP)—When the big bell at St. Adelbert's Polish Catholic Church failed to toll for mass this morning, Walter Chambliss, 44 years old, organist, climbed into the tower in search of the trouble. He was hurled to his death when the bell which had become wedged, was released. He was knocked into the church yard 90 feet below.

MAN IN HOSPITAL AFTER WEDDING DANCE AFFRAY

Beaumont, Jan. 1. (AP)—Arthur Foux, of China, Tex., farmer, is in a local hospital with a bullet through his left lung and two broken ribs, following a shooting at a wedding dance at Gallier school house, 12 miles north of this city about 8 o'clock Thursday night. Foux is in a serious condition.

NOTHING NEW ABOUT NEW YEAR AVERS LADY ASTOR

London, Jan. 1. (AP)—A characteristic New Year comment was made today by Lady Astor, the former Nancy Langhorne of Virginia.

"There is nothing new to say and there is nothing new to do," she remarked. "If the Christian nations could remember the Christ message, 1926 would be a year worth while."

MISS INFORMATION

WHERE CAN I GET THE MOLE REMOVED FROM A FUR TRIMMED SUIT?
I DUNNO IF YOU WANT THE FURRIER OR THE BEAUTY SURGEON

Men, asserts Fabietti, are much more afraid of marriage than women. Sometimes, he says, it has taken all of his tact and skillful diplomacy to prevent reluctant bachelors from bolting before their turn came to face the marriage clerk.

"To know how to be a husband, or a wife is a profession in itself," he says. "The best way to read a person's character is to listen to him pronounce the fatal 'yes'."

Submit Army Coat Models
Washington, Jan. 1. (AP)—Three score or more models from which the new army roll collar uniform will be selected are expected to be submitted by military tailors to the quartermaster general within the next two weeks.

"KEEP Your Credit GOOD!"

CREDIT is more than a matter of money. It is a matter of character. Good credit is a progressive asset. Poor credit is a progressive handicap. What is more forlorn than the man without credit—the man who has been trusted by his fellows and flunked the trust?

By the same reasoning, what is more beneficial than good credit? The man with good credit looks to the future unafraid. Opportunities are his. Credit, his advantage. The man alert to his interest—pays up and keeps his credit good!

Johnson-Billingsley Co.
Rodgers-Wade Furniture Co.
Scarborough & Caldwell
Paris Baking Co.
Arthur Caddel Company
Texas Power & Light Co.
Cook Jewelry Co.
H. W. Finnin, Grocer
Henry P. Mayer
First State Bank
American National Bank
Hugh Palmer Motor Co.
City Cash Grocery and Market
Paris Grocer Company
Amis Brothers, Produce

White & Windham, Garage
Paris Furniture Co.
C. G. Moore Paint & Wall Paper Co.
W. W. Keeling, Main Garage
R. R. Baker Furniture Co.
Corner Drug Store
Greiner & Mohr, Druggists
Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.
Church's Cafe
Marchbanks & Dohoney Co.
Star Transfer Co.
D. H. Scott & Son
Paris Compress and Warehouse Co.
Paris Milling Co.
Box Factory of Paris

First National Bank
D. H. Baker Furniture Co.
Pete Humphries Co.
G. R. Hackel
Deweese & Russell
Carter-Anderson & Co.
W. W. Staples, Jeweler
Mallory Bros.
R. J. Murphy, Druggist
Southern Ice & Utilities Co.
National Hardwards and Stove Co.
Butter Nut Bread Co.
Crawford & Delphenis, Grocery
W. F. Dulaney & Sons

It Pays to Trade at Home!

"Pay up, and keep your credit good!"

AMUSEMENTS

Grand, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

The flying dragons of the fairy stories were very real in the Jurassic Age. The pterodactyls, or flying reptiles, as the paleontologists have named them, passed out of existence 10,000,000 years ago, but they live again in "The Lost World," produced by First Na-

Grand Theatre

Where Paris Is Entertained

SATURDAY

RICHARD BARTHELMESS

—in—

Shore Leave

Screened With the Co-Operation of the United States Navy

COMING—MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

"The Lost World"

It will hold you breathless, clinging to your seats—a picture you will never forget.

What Is It?

It grew to a length of 70 feet and a height of 20 feet, as big as fifteen elephants, an American dinosaur that lived on trees. Find out about this monster next week at the

GRAND MONDAY

Get our prices on Band Instruments
Paramount Banjos
We guarantee to save you money

HENRY P. MAYER

MUSIC HOUSE

Since 1889

Looking Into 1926

The New Year Is Here
We Welcome It

We welcome the opportunity to serve and to progress, to be a factor in the upbuilding of Paris, to contribute a definite and distinctive service to all Paris people. We are determined to achieve new honors in serving the public, to strengthen old friendships and create new.

W. W. West Cash Store

tional and Watterson R. Roth-

acker. "Natures Airships" one writer has termed them. Fossil remains found by the paleontologists give evidence that some of these flying reptiles attained a wingspread of twenty feet. In addition to being the largest flier of all time, certain species were armed with razor like claws and cruel, flesh-tearing beaks.

DEFENDANT ACQUITTED IN JENNINGS SHOOTING

The trial of J. P. Devlin, a middle aged farmer, for assault to murder in connection with the shooting of Ray Stewart, a young man of the Jennings community, for alleged wrongful treatment of the defendant's daughter, resulted in a verdict of acquittal.

When opened at 9 o'clock Friday morning the judge read his charges to the jury, testimony having been concluded Thursday evening, after which most of the day was spent in arguments before the jury.

District Attorney Wyatt Baldwin opened the arguments for the prosecution and was followed by John Hutchison, O. B. Fisher and W. A. Hutchison, for the defense. Court then took recess for dinner, and in the afternoon E. B. Sturgeon closed for the prosecution.

The case went to the jury at 3 o'clock and the verdict was returned a few minutes after 6 o'clock.

After the jury retired to consider its verdict other cases were taken up and there were several pleas of guilty. Marion Foster, a young white man of the Petty community, who was indicted for robbery with firearms, pleaded guilty to assault to rob and was given two years suspended sentence. It was claimed that he held up a negro poker game, but that he didn't "take any money except what he had lost in playing with them."

J. Holmes pleaded guilty to selling liquor and was given two years.

Jas. A. Jones was given two years suspended sentence on plea of guilty to disposing of mortgaged property.

D. A. Drinkard, a young man 21 years old, who had a pint of liquor on his person, pleaded guilty to transporting and was given two years suspended sentence.

After the pleas of guilty had been entered the jurors for the week were excused.

The case of William Barnett, charged with murder, has been set for next Tuesday, and on motion of the district attorney 150 special veniremen were ordered from whom to select a jury.

WILL RAISE BROILERS FOR THE LOCAL MARKET

A. I. Simpson will not raise fancy chickens this year but will raise broilers for the market. He is the Simpson who entered the English Leghorns at the Lamar District Fair the last two years. In 1924, he took nine prizes on his entries and in 1925 he took 5.

Living outside the city limits in the north east side of town where there was a good range it would be supposed that he would let his chickens run out but he pens them. By penning them he is able to keep the strain clear and insure a good return for the time and money invested.

This year he intends raising chickens for the market and table and keep only a few of his fancy high-leg strain of the English Leghorn.

Little Ads Bring Quick Results—The News Want Ads.

If you want a service call 268 For moving, storage, etc., call 472

SERVICES in the CHURCHES

West Paris Church of Christ
Robert G. Cook, minister.

Bible school at 9:45.
Preaching morning and evening by the minister. Communion at 11:50 a. m.

The Woman's Bible class will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the church.

The weekly prayer service will be held on Friday evening.

First Baptist

Sunday school at 9:45 in all departments: classes for all ages, with graded Sunday school lessons.

G. C. Payne, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. Wright, will preach both morning and evening.

The BYPU meets at 6:15 with interesting and appealing program.

The weekly meeting of the Sunday school workers, officers and teachers will be held on Wednesday evening, followed by the mid-week prayer hour at 7:30.

Bonham Street Methodist
Rev. E. H. Mays, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:45; C. V. Gies, supt.

Subject "Decision." The junior league will meet at 2:30.

The intermediates meet at 4:30 and the seniors at 6 o'clock.

Evening service at 7 o'clock; subject "The Galilean."

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30.

Church night service on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

A special program is being arranged for this service. R. H. Capers will lead the devotion.

Ramsey Memorial Baptist
Rev. S. S. Crain, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:45; G. E. Evans, supt.

Rev. Claude Robbins will preach at 11 o'clock and the Kendall E. Y. P. U., Leslie Evans, president.

He will have charge of the evening service.

The Sunbeam band will meet Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Miss Lila Connell in charge.

The Kendall BYPU will meet at 5:30.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

First Presbyterian
Sunday school 9:45.

Morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject "Christ's Compassion for His Disciples."

Soloist, Miss Mignon House. Evening service 7:30; subject "What is Man's Chief End?"

Christian Endeavor.

First Congregational
Rev. Jay L. Emrich, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:30; Charles Duval, supt.

The pastor will preach at both the morning and evening hours.

The annual business meeting of the church will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:30. All members are urged to make plans to attend.

Lamar Avenue Church of Christ
Rev. R. A. Zahn, minister.

Sunday school at 9:45.

Morning service at 11 o'clock; subject "Old and New." This text was preferred because of one of the students from Thorp Springs Christian college.

The Lord's Supper will be observed at 11:50.

Evening service at 7 o'clock; subject "The Ministry of John." The Woman's Bible class will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 at the church.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Methodist Protestant
Rev. L. W. Shivers, pastor.

Sunday school at 9:45.

Morning service at 11 o'clock. This will be a special New Year's service and the pastor's subject will be in keeping with the spirit.

The pastor will be in charge at the evening hour.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Ernest Bray on East Polk street.

Rev. and Mrs. Shivers were pleasantly surprised Friday afternoon when the members of the Ladies' Aid presented them with a handsome oil stove. This gift was greatly appreciated by the pastor and his wife and will be of great benefit in their home.

Immanuel Baptist
Sunday school at 9:45 a. m.; G. A. Cheatham, supt.

Services at the usual hours with preaching by the county missionary, S. W. Edge.

"A Mighty Matter" is the subject.

What de-licious Chocolate Cake

An Old-fashioned Chocolate for a New-fashioned Generation.

Baker's Chocolate

Premium No. 1

Is most satisfactory for cooking and drinking; the first choice of good housekeepers and cooks.

Walter Baker & Co. Ltd.

Established 1780

Dorchester, Mass.

Montreal, Canada

Books of Choice Recipes sent free.

REV. WARREN WHITESIDE AT P.C.C. PRAYER SERVICE

The Paris Commercial college prayer service was held on New Year's eve and served as a very fitting close to the year 1925.

Rev. Warren T. Whiteside, pastor of the First Methodist church, was the speaker and his talk was based on a passage from the 119th Psalm, "I thought on my ways and turned my feet unto thy testimony." Every word of the 119th Psalm makes reference to the word of God.

Dr. Whiteside's talk might be divided into two main parts: First the call to right thinking; second, the noble outcome. We have often heard the old saying, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," and how true it is. Our thinking is fundamental to our living. There seems to be a tendency among the younger generation especially, to ignore many of the teachings of Christ. As we stand on the brink of the old year, how many of us can look back and count the many things we accomplished?

NEW YEAR PARTY FOR BONHAM STREET LEAGUE

Mrs. J. W. Hixon entertained the members of the Intermediate Epworth League of Bonham street Methodist church on Wednesday evening at her home with a delightful New Year party.

Games and contests of various sorts were enjoyed and prizes went to Evelyn Hodges, Henry Marshall Reed and Kenny Wellman. Delicious refreshments were served toward the close of the evening.

CLOVER LEAF BIBLE CLASS HAD DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Mrs. Ernest George and Mrs. O. E. Mayes were hostesses at a delightful forty-two and New Year's party for the members of the Cloject for the morning sermon and in the evening he will speak on "A Forward Look."

The BYPU meets at 6 o'clock. Midweek teachers and officers conference Wednesday evening at 6:45, followed by the prayer service.

"Our Lady of Victory, Catholic"

Rev. Sidney B. Adams, pastor.

Sunday within the octave of New Year's.

Masses will be at 8 and 10 a. m. The 10 o'clock mass will be a high mass.

Communion Sunday for the Altar Society.

Meeting of the Altar Society on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the rectory.

The Knights of Columbus will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

G. C. Payne, of the children of Mary Sodality, will lead the devotion at 7:30 at the Knights of Columbus hall.

Thursday evening, Holy Hour of Prayer from 7:30 to 8:30 in the Infirmary.

Notre Dame academy will open Monday morning to resume classes after the Christmas holiday vacation.

First Christian

J. Leslie Fennell, minister.

Every member of the First Christian church is exceedingly anxious to do everything within his or her power to make it easy for all persons within Paris and her environs to live better and happier lives during 1926. To this end we are offering an attractive program in all departments of the church's life tomorrow, beginning with the church school at 9:30 and shall strive to continue during the entire year.

The church, directed by Prof. J. Emory Shaw, will render a beautiful anthem, "Break Forth into Joy," at the morning hour of worship. A quarter number "The Shepherd's Vision," by Misses Ludwick and Messrs. Dalton and Wright will be the musical offering for the popular service in the evening.

Expert organ men from Hartford, Conn., have spent more than three days unloading and repairing our Austin organ. Prof. Shaw is delighted with the results. He will play a special offertory Sunday morning. Be sure to hear it and thank him and the Ladies' Aid for this splendid piece of service, for the Aid paid for the repairs etc.

Sermon subjects for the day are "What Jesus Believed About the Scriptures" and "We Desire a Better Country."

The Christian Endeavor society will hold its regular meeting at 6:30. Miss Kathleen Beauchamp presiding.

First Methodist

Rev. Warren T. Whiteside, pastor.

8:30 a. m. Sunday school; classes for every age—youth and old. Visitors welcome.

Morning service 11 a. m. 6:30 p. m. senior Epworth League will have charge of program of BYPU at First Baptist church.

7:30 p. m. sermon "The Message of the Times."

Central Presbyterian

Sunday school 9:30.

Morning service 11 a. m.

Prelude in G Major, Loud. Doxology.

Invocation.

Hymn, "Come We That Love the Lord."

Anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul" (Heyser), incidental solo, Feltz Fort.

Announcements.

Offertory, Anbrade (Morning Serenade) Miles.

Solo, "Consolation," Mrs. Frank Fuller.

Sermon, "A Reasonable Service."

Hymn, "Break Thou the Bread of Life."

Closing hymn, "Our Parting Hymn of Praise."

Benediction.

Postlude, Processional March.

F. L. Wear, pastor.

Mrs. L. E. Erwin, organist-director.

Evening service 7 p. m. Sermon, song and picture.

Mr. Malone will lead the singing.

Church of the Holy Cross

Second Sunday after Christmas.

The holy communion will be celebrated at 7:30 a. m. Morning prayer with farewell address at 11 a. m.

Sunday school promptly at 9:30. Weekday calendar.

The annual parish meeting will be held Monday at 8 p. m. Reports will be given by the church organizations. Every member of the parish is asked to be present. The meeting will be from 8 to 9 p. m.

F. W. Golden-Howes, rector.

FARM LOANS

Get our rates and terms before placing your farm loans. Plenty of money, quick service, and good options.

HATHAWAY & BOYD.

21 Lamar, Paris, Texas.

D. H. BAKER FURNITURE CO.

is in the market for all your second hand furniture that is in good condition. Highest prices paid for same. Just phone us and we will do the rest. Phone 941.

Imperial Cafe

Is stocked up to supply all of your most fastidious wants during the holidays, cooked and served just rite.

Wall & Whittle.

A Fine Road

Jep Taylor has done his best to make a dirt road a main highway.

Pattonville. He has the best one I ever saw. But it will not last. In places the water gets so deep it will put out the fire in your motor. It's being used for drainage and highway both.

Mr. Taylor move it to a higher altitude? He's getting your money and mine right nature. Bound to let him move it.

GUNNINGHAM.

Paris-Greenville-Dallas Red Ball Service

Leave Paris 5:30 a. m., 7:15 a. m., 9:15 a. m., 11:15 a. m., 1:15 p. m., 3:15 p. m. and 5:30 p. m.

All cars make direct connections for Dallas, Fort Worth, SPAN & GRIFFIN.

Phone 110 and 500

27 Clarksville Street.

RUSH AT COLLECTOR'S TO PAY AUTO LICENSE

The wickets at the county collector's office have had a swarm of automobile owners and taxpayers in front of them in a steady stream the last few days paying taxes and calling for automobile numbers. The great majority of them call for the purpose of getting their autos registered, while an occasional call is to pay the ad valorem taxes.

Notwithstanding the present rush there have been comparatively few registered so far. The total number up to Friday evening was about 1300 and there are over 7000 in the county.

Beginning on Friday, the first of all auto owners who have not paid the tax and taken out new numbers are delinquent and are liable to be arrested and prosecuted. It is understood that the officers of Lamar county will not begin making arrests before February 1, but this will not protect them from arrest in adjoining counties where no extension of time has been granted.

Charles McDonald, who was in the city Friday from Detroit, said that auto owners in Paris and Lamar county would better provide themselves with new serial numbers before they travel in Red River county. Otherwise they are liable to be hopped upon by officers like a duck on a Junebug. It is said to be the same way in Fannin county.

LOT OF GENERAL WORK HAS BEEN DONE

Notwithstanding the occasional spells of bad weather and the Christmas holidays, the city force has been keeping up a pretty regular lick and has done considerable work lately. It has been putting in bridges and culverts and sidewalks and curbing all over the city, while the graders have been at work in what is known as the black land belt in the south part of town near Evergreen cemetery.

REPORTED ABANDONED AUTO BEING STRIPPED

Constable Bud Walters was notified by telephone at 10 o'clock Thursday night that there was an automobile standing on end in the ditch seven miles east of town and that somebody appeared to be robbing it. He went out to see about it but did not see anybody.

INFLUENZA

As a preventive, melt and inhale night and morning—

VICKS VAPORUB

Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

C Grip

Take

Laxative

Bromo Quinine

tablets

Serious illness and complications often follow an ordinary Cold. Check it—use the old Reliable, Safe and Proven Remedy, "Laxative BROMO QUININE," The First and Original Cold and Grip Tablet. Proven Safe for more than a Quarter of a Century.

The box bears this signature

E. H. Brown

Price 30c.

PAINS ALL OVER

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherby, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any energy. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength."

"I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."

Ask your druggist, NC-155

CARDUI

WOMAN'S TONIC

around. He found that the coils were gone, the casings had not been stripped.

Sold List of Cotton
L. W. Jackson sold a 32 bale list of cotton Thursday for 21 1-2 cents.

Paris Cotton Market
Wagon receipts Thursday 53. Wagon receipts Friday 35. Receipts for the season 32,973. Price paid Thursday 15 to 20c. Price paid Friday 15 to 20c. Cottonseed $27.

WINTERS SUCCEEDS HORN AS MANAGER OF ARMOUR
A dinner was given Friday night at the Gibraltar Hotel, by sixteen employees of Armour and Company, honoring their departing manager, A. V. Horn, who has been transferred to the superintendent's department at Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Horn is succeeded as local manager by J. A. Winters, a city salesman for the company for the past eight years.

BE CURIOUS—about the condition of your eyes. Your own notion of their power and adjustment is all you have to go by. If you could see with the eyes of others who are given perfect vision you could safely judge. Let us show you what perfect vision is. Whiteside & Whiteside Optometrists and Opticians 302 First Natl. Bank

A HAPPY NEW YEAR

May the New Year, 1926, shower upon you the many blessings of health and prosperity

THE PARIS MORNING NEWS

Published Every Morning Except Monday by
THE NORTH TEXAS PUBLISHING COMPANY
Guy S. Caldwell, President and General Manager
Arthur Caddell, Secretary and Treasurer

OSCAR PAYNE, Editor
REAGAN HURT, Business Manager
BEN W. POOLE, Advertising Manager

Entered at the Postoffice at Paris, Texas, as Second Class Mail Matter

Morning News by carrier, 50c per month; $3 for six months; $6 per annum.
Morning News by mail, 50c per month; $3 for six months; $6 per annum.
Sunday (only) Morning News (by mail only) per annum $2.
Semi-Weekly News (by mail only) $1 per annum.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any individual, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The News will be corrected upon being brought to the attention of the publishers.

City subscribers who make complaint before 9 a. m. can have their papers sent to them from the office.
If you do not get your paper regularly please make complaint. If there is no complaint it is presumed that the paper is being delivered.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.
All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

DEATH OR LIFE:—To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Romans 8: 6.

PRAYER:—Gracious God, we know that Thou art a Spirit, able to change us from carnal to spiritual. We look to Thee in faith. O Thou change us into the likeness of Thine Own Image.

CATHERINE'S SOCIAL CODE

RUSSIA emerged from the Middle Ages a hundred years later than the rest of Europe. But if the ten social commandments of the Empress Catherine which have just been unearthed in the Winter Palace in Leningrad are genuine, Russia in the latter eighteenth century has a code of behavior for high society which was far in advance of that in vogue in other capitals.

Court etiquette is notoriously arbitrary and rigid. But Catherine insisted that her guests should assemble as gracious human beings, meeting as equals regardless of rank and right of precedence.
Among her rules were those enjoining people to be gay without spoiling anything, to sit, stand or walk at will without regard to anyone, to talk moderately and to argue without anger or excitement, to join in all innocent games, whenever asked and to eat whatever is savory, and to drink with moderation, so that each might find his legs on leaving the room. The tenth rule forbade telling tales out of school.

If this rule were broken, the guilty party was thereafter excluded, but if the other rules were disregarded, the offender was compelled to drink a glass of cold water for each offense.

It would be difficult to find a better set of rules for the regulation of social intercourse. Indeed, they are the rules observed today by all gracious men and women. When a popinjay disrespects them he is not punished by being compelled to swallow a glass of ice water, but he is punished in other ways. Catherine could inflict her novel penalty, a power which less powerful hostesses would find it difficult to do.

Postmaster General News says tests have demonstrated that there is no public demand for postal service in the transportation of food direct from producer to consumer. Perhaps the service has not been sufficiently advertised to make it general and popular. Certain it is that here and there are to be found farmers who for fifteen years past have been shipping eggs, butter and poultry to satisfied customers by parcel post and making a good thing of it.

HUMAN DEPRAVITY

ALL the schemes and dreams of good men and women now and then smash into a very odd and ugly fact; and that fact at the same time is an old and obstinate boulder in the way of all the plans offered for dealing with the problems of crime and its punishment.

For example, a man 52 years of age up in the Pennsylvania district has confessed that for a stake of $4 he threw oil on an old woman, drenched the premises with the fluid and stood on the mountainside nearby and watched the little house burn up, leaving the charred remains of the old woman in the midst of the ruins.

What shall be said of the susceptibility of such a man to a modicum of moral teaching? And what kind of punishment could have anything more than a purely punitive effect upon such a character?
The blunt theology of an older time classed such a man under the general title of "human depravity," and that is the old and ugly fact which baffles so much of the well-intentioned philanthropies and humanities of the present day.

It takes deep plowing to get at the roots of that evil, whether we are seeking remedies for crime or humane schemes for advancing the welfare of men.

British social lions, we learn from a London dispatch, are masquerading behind muttonchop whiskers. So runs the world's fads. We may yet see Dundrearys, a facial adornment the reason for which no fellow can understand.

WOMEN'S TEARS

SOMETHING new to talk about. Are the women weeping as they used to weep in the good old days? Do the girls cry as mother used to cry? Are tears what they once were? Such are the questions in the new debate which has started among the behaviors of the lachrymals in the theatre of the day.
Of course, it is taken for granted that in the good old days the women and girls went to plays principally for the pleasure of the sweet and sad irrigation of tears. They wept at beauty in distress. The drama was still a power in an age of tender unsophistication.

But now, it is said, everything has changed.
Plays are plays and not transcripts of life. Here and heroine are of the stage stary, and there is nothing any more to take to heart in their mimic performance.

Furthermore, it is said that women can no longer let a flood of tears gully its way through the perfumed powders and other accessories of the modern face beautiful. And yet again it is argued that after the show nowadays comes, not home and to bed as in the simple days of yore, but the party and dance and gay doings till dawn; and the play must not evoke tears that will interfere with these after-gayeties.

All of which exhibits modern sophistication at its worst. In other words, in spite of all the far-fetched plausibility, the plain facts are that the good old feminine habit of tears is as prevalent imperative and popular as ever. Any one with eyes and ears can get all the evidence needed in any moving picture show.

Meanwhile, it is pure assumption that the ladies cried in the good old days with any sort of unanimity. The gift of tears is not vouchsafed to all today any more than it was then.

Dental supply manufacturers in Hartford, Conn., declare that the average American carries around in his mouth $29 worth of gold and silver. That's saying a mouthful. But the man who got 89 cents for what the dentist said was $15 worth of gold will have his doubts.

A London girl of title who has succeeded in establishing a lucrative wine company has no great opinion of women in business. "They are always trying to get something for nothing," she says.
From which we gather that they don't get it from her.

Old Bill, 57, the oldest horse in the world dropped dead on Thursday in Harmony Township, Warren County, N. J., and as buried back of the larn where he had lived twenty years. "And show me a better 'ole," said the shade of Old Bill.

Joyously we do our bit to broadcast the fact that the income tax has received a swift kick in its publicity department.

WORLD TOPICS

GERMANS MAKE REPARATIONS PAYMENTS

GERMANY now has a stable currency and the German budget is balanced," said S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations payments under the Dawes plan, now on a visit in this country, in an interview. He also stated that the reparations plan had notable results.

In discussing reparations, Gilbert said:
"The first annuity of one thousand million gold marks was all paid within the year, four-fifths out of the proceeds of the German external loan and the balance by the German Railway Company in the form of interest on its reparation bonds. In the second annuity year, after three months of which have passed, the amount to be paid rises to 1,220 millions of gold marks and involves for the first time a charge on the German budget. These payments Germany is making each month with the utmost promptitude. The various creditor powers, on their part, have been receiving reparation deliveries and payments regularly ever since the plan went into effect."

"It would be futile to draw conclusions now as to the ultimate possibilities of reparations. The fact remains, however, that the plan has succeeded in placing the whole problem on a new basis.
It has put aside bickerings and the world has been able for the first time in many years to stop talking about reparations. The plan has made it possible instead to find out in a practical way what the payments are and how far it is feasible in actual practice for reparations to be paid by Germany and transferred to the creditor powers. The plan proved to be the turning point in the view of German reconstruction from the disorder and dis-organization of the inflation."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

PHILOSOPHY OF A MURDERER

From Memphis Commercial Appeal:

A DEFENDANT on trial in a Kansas court has been found guilty of first degree murder. Over his protest the defense counsel tried to convince the jury that their client was insane, but failed in the attempt. Here is what the defendant himself has to say about the trial and verdict:

I am glad they found me guilty of murder instead of being crazy. Now I will go to Lansing, stay a while, get a pardon and get out. If I had been found insane, it would have taken a dozen doctors to get me out of an asylum. Now, one man can give me my freedom.

That isn't a false philosophy. The defendant is wiser than his lawyers. He has profited by the experience of his kind who have received life sentences or been condemned to spend, ten, fifteen or twenty-five years in prison. He knows that justice is not only tempered with mercy, but too often is engulfed in mercy.

There is in his statement no expression of regret for the crime committed, no indication of an awakened respect for the Divine or state law he has shattered, no promise of a reformation after he has paid the penalty, however short or long it may be.

His only thought is of self and freedom. He regards the jury verdict as a victory for himself and rejoices in the belief that he has cheated justice.

According to his method of reasoning—and from the criminal viewpoint no fault can be found with it—there would be time enough to plead insanity if the gallows or the electric chair threatened. There are so many forms of insanity possible of development after the death sentence has been pronounced that not even the wretch in the condemned cell need lose hope.

This murderer knows that the criminal who goes to Lansing will also leave Lansing, sooner or later, the odds being altogether in favor of the "sooner." He has learned from the experience of other murderers.

The killers are becoming so wise and so bold that they may yet confuse their counsel with the query:

"Why play crazy until the death sentence has been pronounced?"

$1,000,000 Mansion Razed to Give Millionaire Garden

Most expensive garden in world is being planned for Thomas Fortune Ryan residence at Fifth Avenue and 68th street, New York. The $1,000,000 mansion at left is being razed to provide space for the flowers and fountains. Inset is Mr. Ryan.

ANDREW AND IMOGENE

By Roe Fulkerson

"I do think that the spirit of Christmas is the loveliest thing," sighed Imogene happily. "But the idea of giving people something without any other thought than their pleasure appeals to me very much."

"Your friends did remember you pretty generously," commented Andrew.

"Not only that," answered Imogene, "but I am getting so many things that I really wanted. You know I have been sighing for a new set of card table covers for ever so long. Card table covers are not things you ever buy for yourself. You just wait until some one gives them to you or you win them somewhere."

"I didn't know any one gave them to you," answered Andrew surprised. "Who made you that present?"

"Why Minna did."

"I thought Minna gave you the lamp shade," cried Andrew.

"She did, but I am going to exchange it for the card table covers. I have more lamp shades now than I have lamps, which Minna knows perfectly well. Luckily, I have one almost exactly like the one Minna gave me, that Aunt Rhoda gave me last year. Minna will never know the difference and I will have my covers."

"Sweet spirit of Christmas giving," commented Andrew, grinning.

"Yes, I think so," answered Imogene absently. "Then I am going to have some more beautiful silk stockings."

"I gave you three pairs," reminded Andrew.

"I know you did, and they are lovely," agreed Imogene cordially.
"But I mean those Aunt Rhoda's giving me."

"But didn't she present you with that silk nightgown?"

"She did, but Aunt Rhoda doesn't come here once a year and it came from Mrs. Bridges and they are very nice about exchanging.
Of course she didn't pay very much for that nightgown, so I will not more than seven dollars, so I will just combine it with what they will allow me on the return of Aunt Rhoda's gloves. They were black and I never wear black gloves. Ah, she knows that, too. I wonder why she picked black gloves?"

"Maybe," the sweet spirit of Christmas caused her to give you some gloves some one else had given her," grinned Andrew.

"Why Andrew," cried Imogene,
"if a woman had said that you would have called it a catty remark. But I can get four or five pairs of stockings and I would rather have stockings than a nightgown and gloves."

"Beautiful sentiment there is about Christmas," observed Andrew.

"Oh, men never understand such things of course," cried Imogene exasperatedly. "But women all understand. I shall go down very early tomorrow and do my exchanging."

"Why early?" asked Andrew, lolly curious.

"Why so? I won't run into anyone," answered Imogene earnestly.
"Not all people do understand of course, but most women do, and the stores have a regular exchange bureau with extra clerks, right after Christmas."

"You know," said Andrew seriously, "it would be a good idea if the stores would exchange things before they are given, instead of afterwards. You could go to the store and make a deposit, and tell Minna to get her gift and she could make a deposit and tell you to get your gift and you'd both be exchanging afterwards."

"Oh, Andrew, that would never do," cried Imogene. "That would tell exactly what you spent, before the gift was received, and besides then you couldn't give away any of the gifts you got and did not want."

"Yes, that's so," agreed Andrew. "But surely you'll be crimping in the sweet spirit of Christmas giving."

Copyright, 1925, The McNaught
Syndicate, Inc.

Billy Whiskers

By Frances Trego Montgomery

"Oh, Mrs. Ward, I have been waiting for you to come home.
You see, I decided to trade my coat for your dog, so I tied him to your door knob, so he would be the first thing you saw when you got back."

"You miserable, cherub-faced boy, to go and spoil my newly painted porch! I am going to tell your father, and have him give you a good whipping!"

"Why, Mrs. Ward, you aren't angry at me, are you? I thought I was going to give you a nice surprise, for I am sure a big scold like you can grow a cat is worth more than a medium-sized dog, that can't do anything for you but bark at cows!"

"Take your dog home this minute, and tell your father he will have to pay for having my porch repainted."

"I am dreadfully sorry if I have offended you, Mrs. Ward, and I will repoint the porch myself, so you need not bother father about it, for I assure you he is too busy at present to attend to it, for I heard him say only this morning at breakfast that he had no time to see about having the chicken house painted, when mother asked him to have it done. He told her to go ahead and get the painter to do it. And when she asked him what color he thought it would be the prettiest, he said—"

"I don't care what color you paint it. Paint it pea-green for all I care. I have more important things to attend to than the painting of a chicken house."

"So if you want to paint your porch yourself, Father is awful cross when he is worried about business, but he is a dandy dad when he isn't. So I just keep out of his way when I hear him talking to ma like that."

It's Safe and It Pays Paris Building & Loan Shares
a Dividend Every Six Months

Turkeys, Chickens, fresh eggs.
PETE HUMPHRIES CO.
The People's Friend

Our Daily Health

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D., U. S. Senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health
New York City

A Health Plan for the New Year
It is a lamentable fact that athletes die young. I happened to sit at luncheon the other day next to an old friend. He is a doctor, too, and we compared notes about the famous athletes of our days in college. We were started to count up the numbers who have died.

Within a month these passed away—Sandow, Breitbarth and "Ajax" Whitman, the strongest man who ever served on the New York City police force. These men died at an age when the average man can look forward to twenty or thirty additional years.
What do things in sports do to exerting their wonderful powers over a few minutes of time they accomplish miracles. But think of the strain these moments place upon the heart and blood vessels!

Nature cries for a well-balanced life. She doesn't want you to run your head off now and then to creep like a snail. The man who was a trained athlete in his youth must keep up his exercise as he grows older or trouble will overtake him. But the man in his sixties cannot venture where he traveled easily in his teens.

I have a doctor friend seventy years of age. He will smile when he reads this article and will telephone me, perhaps, to say he doesn't believe a word of it. Because he plays tennis all day, he thinks everybody should be able to do that at seventy.

It can't be done. My doctor has a powerful heart and very short and flexible blood vessels. He is one among a thousand. The average man past sixty has developed more or less hardness and brittleness of his arterial walls. His exercise may produce serious harm.

The photograph and the radio supply us with "exercises" to keep down the weight and to keep up the strength. They are a good thing—but not for old people, or persons with middle life.

Consider the sort of life you have lived. My advice is to continue exactly that kind of living, provided, of course, it has been a decent life and one given to some kind of daily exercise.

A friend of mine every New Year's takes a solemn vow to live during the year to come exactly the kind of life he followed during the year just closed. That is a good vow. If the life was a good life, if you are getting exercise, fresh air and sunshine and eating good food, keep on the same way during the New Year. You can't do better.

The streets of Hell are said to be paved with good intentions. I don't want to encourage you in the making of vows you cannot keep. But if you can determine to live a simple, active, balanced life during 1926, you will add to your value as a citizen, to your companionship as a friend, to your loving kindness in the family life, to your personal happiness and to your length of days.

DR. L. B. STEPHENS
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Errors in Refraction Corrected 505-506 First Nat'l Bank Bldg.
Phones, Office 408, Residence 218 GLASSES FITTED

United Advertising Corporation Poster Advertising Office With CLEM LUMBER CO.

M. B. MCCOY
CHIROPRACTOR
First National Bank Building

Real Estate Loans Residence, Business, Apartments and Farm Loans
We do our own inspecting and close Loans with our own funds
Low Rates, Quick Service
REES & JONES
225 North Main, PARIS, TEXAS

Troubadours
Paris Council No. 1 meets every Wednesday night in W. O. W. club room, second floor Odd Fellow building.
B. I. JORDAN, Trouver.

Paris Rebekah Lodge
Meets every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting members always welcome.
MRS. L. D. EVANS, N. G.
MRS. JAP KING, Secretary.

Order of Eastern Star
Paris Chapter No. 5. O. E. S.
meets every second and fourth Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Visiting members always welcome.
MRS. JOHN JACKSON, W. M.
MRS. B. I. JORDAN, Sec'y.

Order of Eastern Star
Regular meeting Lamar Chapter 699 first Thursday night of each month. Visitors welcome.
MRS. MAUDE CONWAY, W. M.
MRS. MAGGIE FOX, Secretary.

RED BALL Stage Line
Westbound
Paris-Bonham

Leaves Paris for Honey Grove,
Bonham, Sherman, Dallas,
Whitesboro and Gainesville,
6:45, 8:45, 10:45, 12:45,
2:45, 4:45, 6:45.
All schedules make direct connection at Gainesville, Wichita Falls, Ardmore, Oklahoma City, Fort Worth and Denton.

Phones 500 and 110
J. C. MCGUIRK, Prop.
"We Never Sleep"

Yellow
Cab
Telephone 268

The Wise Sayings of Mrs. Solomon

By Helen Rowland

How Could the Poor Girl Know?

Verily, of synthetic love and synthetic lovers, the world is full.

But, it hath come to pass that a real lover is harder to find than a genuine sealskin coat.

The flapper hath said in her heart, "Behold, the perfect lover is he that knoweth HOW to kiss!"

But, every woman knoweth in her heart that a kiss without words or meaning is as an English muffin without butter and spinach without salt.

Yet, how shall a flapper acquire discernment? For, in a world full of men she meeteth only the seconds and the cheaper cuts.

Go to. Her list includeth the bloppy youth, who smothereth his father's ear and borroweth his sister's cigarettes; who stoopeth upon the gas and is as heavy-handed with his petting as with the hair-oil.

Yea, and the College Cutie, who addeth his own conceit unto man's natural egotism and thinketh himself every dandy's sweetest and the Big Parade in every woman's life.

And the town Sheikh, who seeketh to "express himself" in weird and wonderful neckties and floating balloon trousers, and is happy only when his coat-lapel is freshly adorned with a new brand of rice-powder.

And the Married Flirt, who's wife "doth not understand him," and who seeketh consolation and "companionability" in the stimulating company of babes and blondes, who understand him all TOO well.

And the woman-whisperer bachelor, who maketh love with his hand upon his pulse, his eye upon the clock and his mind upon the nearest emergency exit.

Yea, alas, these are the synthetic lovers who make up the "Who's Who" of the Flapper's date-book.

These are the Gilded Beings, upon whom she hangeth her illusions, and dreameth her dreams of romance!

How then, shall the flapper pass upon the Perfect Lover?

For, in all the days of her life,
she hath never KNOWN one!

And, verily, verily, synthetic love is as satisfying as a cheese sandwich taken in place of a good dinner.

SELAH.
(Copyright, 1926, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

J. C. PATE, roof tiler, paper hanger and painter. Phone 655-J.

Colds
By millions ended
Hill's stop millions of colds every winter—and in 24 hours. They end headache and fever, open the bowels, tone the whole system. Use nothing less reliable. Colds and Grippe call for prompt, efficient help. Be sure you get it.

All druggists HILL'S Price 30c
CASCARA & QUININE
Get Red Box with portrait

Call at our store for a FREE BOTTLE
PEP
Elixir
TASTES GOOD & ACTS QUICKLY IN Constipation

Stomach Trouble, Bile, Indigestion, Bowel Obstruction, Flat Ulcers, Heart, Nervous, Irritability, Distension, Bloating, Headache, Dizziness, Stomach Pain, Piles, Hemorrhoids, Stomach, Bowel, Bladder, Dyspepsia, Bile, Indigestion, Bowel Obstruction, and leading ailments due to Constipation.

Palace Drug Store, Paris, Texas

EVOLUTION

Centuries ago, the cave man thought a blazing fire in a rocky niche offered the greatest comfort any mortal could desire.

Along in the Middle Ages an open fire on a hearth-stone in the center of a room was considered the utmost in comfort, although only a hole in the roof served as a chimney.

By Queen Elizabeth's time, the fireplace had reached a stage of development which has not been greatly improved on to this day as far as basic design and decorative treatment are concerned. And the subjects of "Good Queen Bess" thought they they, too, had attained the maximum in comfort and convenience.

Morning News Classified Page

RATES—1c per word, minimum 15c daily. 25c minimum first insertion. Classified ads received after 6 p. m. will be held over until following day.

NEWS WANT ADS BRING QUICK RESULTS

1926 JANUARY 1926
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Democratic Primary, July 24, 1926

For County Judge:
C. R. WEST.

PERSONAL

W. J. Finishing. The photo shop, Box 75, Paris, Texas.

STRAYED

STRAYED OR STOLEN—October 23, from George Love farm south of Clarksville, Texas, one black horse mule, will weigh about 1100 or more pounds, with white collar mark on shoulder. About 14 or 15 hands high. One light brown horse mule, will weigh about 1100 or more pounds, with collar marks on top of withers. Will pay $5 for the return or any information leading to recovery. Address Box 202, Clarksville, Texas, or telephone connect.

STRAYED from near Glensville, December 25, a black horse mule about 14 1/2 hands high, smooth mouthed; wire cut above right knee. Notify G. C. Darnell, Paris, Route 6.

STRAYED—One sorrel mule, 14 1/2 hands high, about 16 years old and one blue mare mule about 14 1/2 hands high, 10 years old. Reward for information leading to recovery. Rufus Mitchell or J. W. Peterson, Klondike, Texas.

STRAYED—A yellow cow about 2 1/2 years old belonging to P. C. Cullis. If found notify John Kennedy or J. W. Dickey at Roston, Texas.

WOOD AND COAL

CASEY JONES is still putting out that same kind of wood. Phone 514.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF ELECTION—Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the shareholders of the Liberty National Bank will be held at its banking house in the city of Paris, Texas, between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock, p. m., on the second Tuesday in January, the same being the 12th day of said month, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year. Jas. M. Cecil, cashier.

Notice to Stockholders—Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the First State Bank will be held at its banking house in the city of Paris, Texas, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, on the second Tuesday in January, the same being the 12th day of said month, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year. G. R. Coleman, cashier.

NOTICE is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Lamar State Bank and Trust Company will be held at its banking house in the city of Paris, Texas, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock on the second Tuesday in January, same being the 12th day of said month, for the election of directors and such other business as may come before the meeting. Morris Fleming, cashier.

FOUND NOTICE—Thursday, Jan. 7, 1926, at the city pound, between 10 and 11 a. m., I will sell to the highest bidder for cash, a black horse mule about 16 hands, 10 years old, impounded Dec. 28, 1925. E. H. Pearson, stock policeman.

Stockholders Notice—Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens National Bank of Paris, Texas, will be held in its banking building on January 12, 1926, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year. Lowell Russell, cashier.

For the best meats, chickens, turkeys, fresh eggs, and barbecue Phone 433. HANCOCK'S MARKET

SHOES, SHOES

We have a limited supply of work shoes to close out at greatly reduced prices. The Army Store, 96 Bonham street.

Perfect Records

50c

At the latest numbers now in stock.

Palace Drug Store 379—Phone—2055 Motorcycle Delivery

Insurance FRANK ROBERTSON CO. Jones Bldg. Phone 498

Galkreath, Dewese & Prock GENERAL INSURANCE Scott Building. Phone 237

C. M. Ragland & Co. INSURANCE 1st Nat. Bk. Bldg. Phone 2

PARIS POULTRY BREEDERS REPRESENTED AT HUGO

E. L. Coggins has returned from the Choctaw County Poultry association winter poultry show at Hugo, Dec. 28 to 31 inclusive. Mr. Coggins reports a splendid show with lots of enthusiasm at Hugo and a strong desire to co-operate with Lamar and adjoining counties in the development of the industry on a bigger scale.

The following breeds were represented in the show and their prizes are respectively indicated: H. A. Book: Light Barred Rocks—2, 3 cock bird, 1 " cockerel, 1, 4 hen, 1, 2, 3, 4 pullet.

A. P. Ezer: Jersey Black Chicks—1, 2, 3, cockerel, 1, 2, 3 hen, 1, 2 pullet, 1 young pen.

E. L. Coggins: American Single Comb White eghorns—1, 3, 4 cock, 1, 3 hen, 1, 2 pullet, grand champion hen, all breeds, grand champion cock, all breeds.

These birds were exhibited by R. V. P. A. of Lamar county.

The association was represented by E. L. Coggins who was in the show room with them and this was the largest exhibit by any one exhibitor. They had thirty-eight birds on display and were awarded thirty-one ribbons, so you can see there is some of the best poultry in Lamar county to be found anywhere. So why leave home to buy birds? Buy them at home and get the best. Mr. Coggins brought back with him on this small entry than any county on all breeds. He also brought back to Lamar county with him a nice loving cup for being the largest exhibitor in the show.

So boys let's get together and put the poultry business of our county over for the next shows of 1926. This is the biggest year of all.

Red River Valley Poultry Assn., Paris, Texas.

DEATHS

Edmund Funeral—The funeral of N. D. Edington, which was delayed on account of awaiting the arrival of a sister from Detroit, Mich., and a son from Kansas City, was held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at Emerson and Brown's chapel. After the funeral service the remains were taken to Hopewell cemetery for interment in the country.

Emmet Diggins—Emmet Diggins aged 27, died Friday afternoon at his home on Booth street, following an illness of three weeks. He is survived by wife and three children, five brothers and a sister.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the family residence, conducted by Rev. E. H. Mays, pastor of the Bonham Street Methodist church. Interment will be made at the Little Vine cemetery, twelve miles west of Paris, and a brief service will be held at the grave.

W. B. Kavanaugh—Friends of W. B. Kavanaugh, a former resident of Paris, were painfully surprised to learn of his sudden death, which occurred at 9 o'clock Friday morning at the home on his sisters here on East Price street, whom he was visiting during Christmas.

On Christmas Day he was attacked with acute rheumatism, but seemed to be recovering from the effects of it when he was stricken with apoplexy while sitting in a chair in front of the fire and fell forward on his face and expired.

William Blake Kavanaugh, who was known by all his old acquaintances as Blake Kavanaugh, was 67 years old and was born in Carrollton, Mo., but he had spent practically all of his life in Paris up until a few years ago when he went to Arlington to make his home. He came here with his parents, Jas. W. Kavanaugh and Margaret Brewster Kavanaugh in childhood.

His father, who was a highly esteemed man, served as county clerk of Lamar county, and as a boy he began serving as a deputy under his father, who died before his term of office expired. Capt. D. Ridley was elected to fill the vacancy and he continued to serve under Capt. Ridley. Subsequently he was elected to the office and served three terms. He had been active in county affairs several years. He went to Arlington a few years ago to make his home and he became interested in prospecting for oil.

He married Miss Fannie Jackson, a member of a well known family of Ladonia in 1919. She died in May of last year. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Hamilton Lee and Misses Norma and Minnie Kavanaugh, all of Paris.

Funeral service will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of his sisters at 339 East Price street. Interment will be at Emerson cemetery.

The active pallbearers will be Walter E. Boyd, W. A. Hutchison, Hugh Hathaway, Billie Gorham, W. F. Moore, C. M. Greiner.

The following have been named as honorary pallbearers: S. L. Bedford, E. E. Morris, W. H. Robertson, Albert T. George, T. J. Record, E. S. Connor, Dr. J. M. Hooks, R. F. Scott, J. W. Rankin, M. P. Alexander, Tom Halsell, Jesse Haney, C. M. Ragland, Jno. T. Henley.

Mrs. Walker's Funeral

The flowers that covered the grave of Mrs. N. V. Walker at Emerson Friday, attested the love and respect of her neighbors and the strength of friendships formed during her half century of life in Paris. Nor were these confined to the older associates, for the younger generation who knew her even since age confined her to the limits of the house, loved her as "Mimi," a name by which she was affectionately known in the home whose four generations required a different name for one grandmother.

The majestic burial service of the Episcopal church was attended by many of them, who with real sorrow followed the body to Evergreen cemetery where it was laid to rest beside that of her husband and two daughters who had preceded her.

Her other daughters, Mrs. A. W. Neidale and Miss Maude Walker, and the family of the former, are joined by the friends in sorrow for her passing.

PERSONAL

Dudley McCormack of the Texas Company office force is sick and Mr. Walters is taking his place. Mr. McCormack is not seriously ill.

Ennie Brand who lives on the west boulevard is able to walk on crutches. He has been in bed with rheumatism for several weeks. The rheumatism is thought to have been caused by an abscessed tooth.

Carl (Scooter) Harrison is about ready to throw away his cane. He fractured an ankle playing football a few weeks ago.

Miss Margaret Richey of Roston visited her grandparents and other relatives in Paris Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. J. N. Hipp of Murfreesboro, Ark. has returned home after a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Rogers.

Miss Annie Lou Rogers, who has been teaching at Grand Saline, will be an addition to the faculty of Paris High school when school takes up Monday. She will teach mathematics.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Faught of Tishomingo, Okla., and Walter Faught of Dallas arrived Friday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Nancy V. Walker.

W. B. Meaders of Blue Mountain, Ark., was in Paris Friday.

J. M. Tillman of Gilmer was in Paris Friday.

Murray Braden of San Antonio, who has been making a short holiday visit to his mother left for home Friday.

G. F. Rucker of Ladonia and L. R. Rucker of Commerce transacted business in Paris Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Burks of Livingston have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Veto on Bonham street.

W. J. Veto of Bogata is visiting his brother, A. B. Veto.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Shea left Friday for St. Louis to spend a few days before returning to their home in Detroit, Mich.

W. E. Wise returned Thursday from an extended trip over South and West Texas and a trip to Old Mexico.

Mr. Sterling Stamper of Tulsa, Okla., and J. B. Stamper of Lawton, Okla., who have been spending Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stamper, and attending the bedside of Miss Maude Jenkins, have returned to their homes.

Miss Mary Emma Geron will return today from Dallas where she spent Christmas. She will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tanner and daughter, Louise, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pellison, who will spend the week-end with the family of Dr. T. C. Geron.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Martin have returned to their home in Texarkana after spending the holidays with relatives in Paris.

R. C. Parr of Stephenville spent Friday night in Paris.

E. R. Hill and J. T. Ferguson of College Station were in Paris Friday night.

F. B. Horner of Bogata spent Friday night in Paris.

Mrs. John Sparger and Mrs. Ed Hunt, Jr., and little son from Dallas are visiting relatives here.

Marriage Licenses—W. H. Goodwin and Miss Myrtle Casey. Lester Miller and Miss Mertle Bittle.

EXPECTS TO MAKE RACE FOR CONSTABLE—O. J. Carter, who was a county motorcycle officer over three years, stated Friday that he would be a candidate for constable.

NOTICE—This is to inform our friends and patrons, that we have purchased the Insurance Agency of Jack Bankhead, and that all transfers, endorsements and changes of every character on policies issued by Mr. Bankhead will be made in our office beginning today. All business entrusted to us will receive our very best attention. H. W. House & Co., Agts. Phone No. 539.

BUSINESS CHANGE—Relative to above statement made by Messrs. H. W. House & Co., Agts., I wish to state, I have sold by business to said firm and the past record of their agency merits your confidence. Thanking you for your past favors and asking a continuance of your business with my successors, I beg to remain, Yours truly, Jack Bankhead.

CITY LOANS—Interest rate 7 1/2 per cent. Easiest repayment terms offered by anyone. Prompt service. W. H. UPTON, First Natl. Bank Building.

Bill Williams' Waffle House—For holiday delicacies of all kinds, and home-like lunches, cooked good. Cor. Lamar and 21st.

W. W. Keeling—Automobile and battery repairing. Phone 460. Main Garage.

Fresh Fish and oysters and the better home killed meats at PETE HUMPHRIES CO. The People's Friend

Arthur Caddel Company SUCCESSOR TO Burton Peck

Buy a New Dress Today in Our 1-2 Price Sale of DRESSES

Buy a new Frock today in our Half-Price Sale. You may enjoy a really fine Dress at the price of a cheap Dress. You may choose from our entire stock of fine Dresses at wonderful savings. Any type or kind of Frock you may want.

BEAUTIFUL CLOTH DRESSES HANDSOME SATIN DRESSES FLAT CREPE DRESSES CUT VELVET DRESSES CHENILLE DRESSES BEADED GEORGETTE DRESSES

HALF PRICE

QUICK MEAL GAS RANGES

offers conveniences that you should investigate before you buy—

LARGER OVEN NON-RUSTABLE OVEN CLEANABLE BURNERS LORAIN REGULATOR

FEATURES THAT MAKE COOKING A PLEASURE

REZNOR, IRONTON-RADIANT AND QUICK MEAL GAS HEATERS

We will accept your old stove as first payment and give easy terms on balance.

Johnson-Billingsley Co.

MONEY!

We have ample funds to lend on real estate—low rates—good options—Come, let us figure with you.

D. H. SCOTT & SON

Farm Mortgages Since 1887.

BRINGING UP FATHER

THE NEBBS

By GEORGE M'MANUS

By SOL HESS

Hectic Texas High School Football Race Comes To An End

PETER'S ADVENTURES
ANIMAL LAND

Behind Bars
And Father Growly began his story thus:
"Oh, how I hate this place! Groveled Polar Bear, and beat his head against the bars. How close it is! If it were not so beautiful and I didn't love it so well, I would tear the fur off my back! What a disagreeable odor! And how dark! G-r-r-r! Just think of it! I, a native of the great white Northland, with the top of the world to wander over, shut up in a cage! Twelve paces ahead and

Slippers For The Season's Formals

We are showing the season's latest models in Blonde, Gold and Silver Kid, Black Satin, White, Brown, Fallow and Patents in D'Orsay and Straps, priced from—

$6 to $12

Hosiery, Too.

Famous
16 North Side Plaza.

As the old year, with its joys and sorrows, like the unseen sunset of a cloudy day, passes silently into the history of the ages, and the New Year arises as a Star of Hope, one becomes more thoughtful of the rapid flight of Time, more mindful of the preciousness of Friendship and more appreciative of the value of Kind Words.

That you may in 1926 be abundantly blessed with

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

PEACE AND PROSPERITY

Is the earnest wish of

Williams-Burgess

A REAL ESTATE BANK

FOR PARIS AND LAMAR COUNTY

(Is it needed—will it pay?)

Is there, in your opinion, an opening in Paris for a "Real Estate Bank"—or a properly financed, properly managed institution lending money only on real estate, or dealing in real estate securities?—an institution with ample funds to make all the good real estate loans offered it, and buy all the good real estate notes offered for sale in Paris and Lamar county—and with sufficient funds to meet all the legitimate building needs of good people to buy and pay for good comfortable homes, not only in town, but also in the country—good farm homes of 30 to 150 acres, on terms upon which such homes can be easily paid for.

If you think such an institution is needed in Paris and Lamar county—if you think such an institution will make money for its stockholders—and would be a good thing for the people of Paris and Lamar county as a whole, give your ideas and views on the proposition to—

—W. J. MINTON—

GOOD HOME INVESTMENT AND LOAN COMPANY

209 First National Building, Paris.

N. B. Some of these "Real Estate Banks" operating in other towns and counties of Texas have not only greatly helped to build up their respective towns and counties, but they have also made from twenty per cent to one hundred per cent per annum, on the money invested in the capital stock of the bank.

For sale:—Good farm home, on easy payments; 70 acres in cultivation; 60 acres fine hay meadow, balance pasture and timber. Good neighborhood. Reasonably good improvements. One of the best bargains offered in Lamar county. Price, $50 per acre. Can be handled with small amount of money. W. J. Minton, 209 First National Building, Paris. Phone 44.

HOW TO GET THE MONEY FOR YOUR REAL ESTATE

If you own desirable farm land, or city property, and want the cash for it, at its fair market value, place it for sale with Good Home Investment & Loan Company,—"Real Estate Bank" of Paris.

This Company buys and sells real estate, outright, and on commission;—makes loans on farm lands and city property to help people sell their property, and to help people buy homes;—lends money to build new houses, and to improve and modernize old houses, in both town and country;—lends money to take up and extend loans falling due, in either town or country;—buys good vendor's lien notes;—furnishes a lot in town, or a parcel of land in the country, and builds thereon a good house, and sells it for a small payment down with easy payments on balance;—pays six to seven per cent interest on money as "deposit-loans" furnishing First Mortgage Real Estate Notes as security thereon, in addition to the security afforded by the assets of the Company.

A General "Real Estate-Banking" business transacted. W. J. Minton, General Agent, First National Building, Paris, Kirby Building, Dallas.

A SAFE AND PROFITABLE INVESTMENT

If you want a safe and profitable investment, with first class real estate security on every dollar invested, buy Preferred Stock in Good Home Investment & Loan Company.

This Company is a Joint Stock Building Savings and Loan Texas Corporation,—"Real Estate Bank". The Preferred stock of this Company can be had for $150 per share, payable in full, cash in advance, or on payments of $5 per month, per share, with eight per cent interest guaranteed on each payment from date made until the stock is paid in full. This stock is one of the best monthly-savings Real Estate security investments today offered in Texas. An investment of $10 per month, for 27 months (total $270) in this stock (if the dividends are left with the Company to accumulate at compound interest), reasonably assures $1000 in cash at the end of ten years,—and possibly more. Common stock in this Company may be had at $50 per share, payable in full cash in advance. For particulars address or see W. J. Minton, 209 First National Building, Paris or 714 Kirby Building, Dallas.

As I was? Poor fellow! Misery like company, and for my sake I am glad you're in the next cage, but I am sorry for you."

Polar Bear shook his head pityingly. Then suddenly he heard a

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too, like I was? Poor fellow! Misery like company, and for my sake I am glad you're in the next cage, but I am sorry for you."

Polar Bear shook his head pityingly. Then suddenly he heard a

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

"I bang my head against solid steel! I've feet to the right and I can't go no farther! Face and turn! Turn and pace! I have paddy-pawed around and around and around until I am dizzy! Walls and in front bars that look as well as walls on three sides of me! easy to crush as silvery eels but bars that are so strong that not with all the strength of my paws can I bend them!"

"Come, now, Cousin, this place isn't so bad after you get used to it. You'll not mind it a bit after a while."

"Who is counseling me?" demanded Polar Bear, twisting his head and trying to poke his nose through the bars to see who was speaking. "You must be mistaken. I have no people in these parts."

"I am Gypsy the Bear, and being a Bear I am a cousin of yours, even if my coat is black." The answer came in a gruff so friendly that Polar Bear began to feel a little bit happier right straight away—so much better, indeed, that he asked another question:

"How did you get here, Cousin? Were you hunted and trapped, too,

BELLEFONTE TEAM DEFEATS SHERMAN

Huge Crowd Witnessed Contest Won by Eastern Academy Eleven on Friday

Sherman, Jan. 1. (P)—Sherman high school Bearcats held the Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, academy "wonder" team to 47 points and themselves scored a touchdown late in the final period of the New Year's game here today.

Captain Hood, of the Bellefonte team, gave a wonderful demonstration of the accurate long distance passing for which he is famed throughout the East, before a crowd of about 10,000 people gathered from North and Central Texas and Southern Oklahoma for the inter-sectional classic which closed the gridiron season for this section.

Welch Carraway Moore and Kelleher played brilliant football in Sherman's backfield. White, Moore, Williams and Caudet started with Hood for the Bellefonte aggression.

Despite the fact that Bellefonte had the much heavier team Sherman's line held line plays well but could not reach the rapid and accurate passing Hood who ran 25 yards behind the line of scrimmage to begin his passes, one of which netted 40 yards and a touchdown, served 65 yards from the line.

Bellefonte scored only once in the first quarter and crossed Sherman's goal line but twice in the first half.

Sherman scored late in the final period on a long pass after a series of passes and runs and line backs had carried the ball into Bellefonte territory.

LONGHORNS HAVE HAD EDGE IN LONG CAREER

Austin, Jan. 1.—In the University of Texas football squad's 32 years of existence the Longhorns have piled up mighty schedules against their opponents and several times the Longhorns have gotten the title end of the big scores.

On the whole, however, the Longhorns have maintained a clear edge on their opponents. The largest score piled up in a single game was that in 1915 when the Longhorns beat Daniel Baker 92 to 0. Some of the other big scores made against the Longhorns' various opponents were the 74 to 0 victory over the Southern Methodist University in 1916; the 77 to 0 victory over Baylor University in 1913; the 68 to 3 win over Haskell in 1910; and the score of 69 to 0 against Austin College in 1921.

The Longhorns' worst defeat came in 1904 when the University of Chicago walked off with a 95 to 0 victory.

In the first year of its history the team played two games with Dallas and two games with Sautone, winning all four of them. The second year intercollegiate play was begun. In the seven games played that year Texas lost only one and that to the University of Missouri who scored 28 to 9. Of the 232 victories piled since 1893, 172 have meant victories for the Longhorns and nine have been tied.

GRANGE PROVES STAR WHEN HIS TEAM WINS

Tampa, Fla., Jan. 1. (P)—"Red" Grange proved the star of the game in this afternoon between the Chicago Bears and Tampa Cardinals when he broke through the stubborn line of the Cardinals in the last quarter and raced 60 yards for a touchdown. The game ended in a 17 to 3 victory for Grange's team.

Grange got away for his long run after shaking off a number of tacklers.

HIGH BULLDOGS DEFEATED DENISON TEAM

The Gibbons High Bulldogs colored met the football eleven from North Texas College at Denison on New Year's Day at Jones park. The Bulldogs taking the game by a score of 33-14.

There was an excellent attendance, and the fans were given a game and a half of football. The Gibbons Bulldogs have lost only one game this year, and have won three Greenville, Clarksville and Denison.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER HAS NEW ROAD MACHINERY

County Commissioner Tony Booth of precinct 4 is looking actively to the interest of his roads in the northeast part of the county. A large grader is the latest of his road making machines.

There